RACE WAR.

Five Negroes Five Upon a Party of Whites.

NEW ORLEANS, March 29.—The race war which has been carried on for some time between the whites and negroes in this city, reached its height today.

The parish court of Jefferson Parish, the first and only one of its kind in the state, has been organized.

It is a body of five whites and five negroes, and has been organized for the purpose of settling disputes between the two races.

The court was organized today, and its first business was to hear the case of a white man who had been charged with the murder of a negro.

The case was heard by the court, and the verdict was returned in favor of the white man.

The court then adjourned until next week.
